1 son be forced to move.

2 3) I and my son would face additional financial hardships with moving costs, rent costs,
3 down payment of rent expenses and transferring of utilities expenses, which I do not have.

4 4) I would incur expenses and emotional and mental anguish if the property was sold; as I
5 would have to amend my litigation and defend myself against an "Unknown" person.

7 5) I will incur unforeseen hardships should the home be sold and then be returned to me
8 at a later date, if it were altered in any way.

9 6) The monies I used as a down payment were monies from the sale of a previous home in 10 Spokane. I worked diligently to build the equity in that home. I will lose my entire life's 11 savings and I cannot recover from that at the age of 57.

13 7) I have suffered physical and emotional injury with the stress of the mortgage fraud I
14 have learned about.

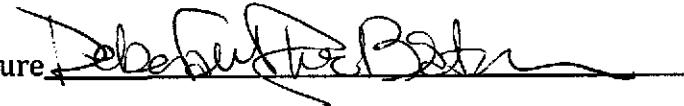

15 8) It is in the greater public interest not to foreclose as this will lower the property values
16 of those in my neighborhood.

17 Respectfully submitted this 24th day of May, 2011.
